

BIOGRAPHY

Born in Schenectady, NY, Frank P. Johnson received his BA degree from Union College in 1875. He graduated from Albany Medical College in 1881 and was valedictorian of his class. Tragically, he died of typhoid fever a year after graduating from AMC at the age of 29.